The ordinance of Baptism will be administered at half-past two o'clock in the evening, in the Potomac river, off Battery Rodgers, by G. W. Parker, the colored pastor of the Princess street Church.

EMBER WEEK.—The week immediately succeeding the first Sunday of Lent is known as the Spring Ember Week, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday being the ember days, and recognized in the Catholic Church as fast days of obligation. The ember weeks occur once in each season—the first in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; the second in Spring, immediately after the first Sunday of Lent; the third in summer, during Whitsun week, and the fourth in autumn, immediately after Holyrood day (the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross, September 14). The object of these special days is to consecrate the season to God, to pray for his blessings on earth, and to ask for worthy ministers of His holy word. In Catholic countries the ordination of clergymen takes place generally on the Saturday of Ember week. The name is supposed to have been derived from the ancient custom of sprinkling ashes or embers on the garments, as a token of sincere penitence. In this country there are no special public services connected with Ember week; the obligation to abstain from flesh meat is, however, observed, and in the office of the day, recited by the priests, appropriate prayers and psalms are inserted.—Exchange.

AN EXCELLENT LETTER.—The mail, a few days ago, brought us the following excellent letter from an old friend in Fairfax county: "Last night I received notice of a small remittance on the way to me, which will enable me to aspire once more to the dignity and position of a subscriber to a newspaper. Editors are always with me the class of persons who share the first offerings or first fruits of my good fortune; and why not? Or who are more to become? So, in anticipation of my ability to deserve the honored individual aforementioned, and too impatient to wait the receipt of my money, I send you an instalment to get my name on your books for the Fairfax Gazette, for life, I hope, at least as long as I am able to pay in advance."

THEATRICAL.—The German comedy of Der Gerade Wag Der Baste, the straight way the best, was produced by the members of the Eintracht Association of this city, at their cozy little theatre in Washington Hall building, last night, before a full and appreciative audience. The debutants, last night, Miss Barbara Brunn and Mr. Riggelman, filled their respective roles admirably, as did, as they invariably do, all the members of this excellent company. After the play the room was closed and the younger portion of the audience whiled away several additional hours in mingling in the merry figures of the dance.

MAGNIFICENT HORSE.—There is now at the livery stable of Mr. James Chatham, in this city, one of the finest horses known in this section of country. Trustee, jr., his name, is a fine descendant of the father of the famous horses Fashion and Revenue, and is a splendid looking animal. He is a thoroughbred of a dark bay color, of great muscular power, of high form and distinguished carriage, and apparently without a blemish. He is on his way from Lunenburg Court House to New York, where it is understood he is to be disposed of, and was stopped in this city for a few days, in order that he might rest.

THE MARKET, this morning, was only tolerably supplied with country produce. The butchers had the usual kinds of meats—mostly of good quality—at the usual prices, and there is to change to notice, particularly in the rates of vegetables. Poultry scarce and high. Eggs 20 to 25 cts. per dozen. Fresh fish are not in abundance, and the prices continue as they have quoted throughout the week.

COLORS SCHOOLS.—Rev. Jobu Kinnball, Superintendent of Colored Schools in the Department of Washington, has made his report to General Howard, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, showing the condition of schools during the month of February. In Alexandria and Fairfax county, Va., there are 26 schools, with 1,756 pupils, under 29 white and 5 colored teachers.

BASE BALL ACCIDENT.—A little boy, Dick O'Brien, one of the carriers of the Gazette, received, while witnessing a game of base ball yesterday evening, a blow from a bat in the hands of one of the players which laid open the skin of his forehead, and temporarily stunned him. He was taken to Dr. Stabler's office where his wound was properly dressed, and led home.

SNOW STORM.—We have had another snow storm to-day, quite equal in vigor and duration to the "generality of snows" in mid-winter. We believe this will nearly complete the number of "snows" predicted, in advance of the season.

COMMISSIONER IN CHANCERY.—John West, of this city, has been appointed by Judge Henry W. Thomas, Commissioner in Charge for the Circuit Court of Alexandria county.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—To-morrow, the 17th, is St. Patrick's Day.

THE COUNTER MEMORIAL.—The following is a copy of the memorial signed by about twenty-five of the most respectable and worthy of the unquestionably loyal citizens of our city, and presented to the Senate of the United States some days ago:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress Assembled.

The undersigned citizens of Alexandria, Virginia, who are now and always have been loyal men, in the interest solely of truth and justice, and that peace of mind which is so essential to the material welfare of our impoverished people, respectfully ask leave to make known to your honorable bodies that the petition of Messrs. John C. Underwood, George Tucker and others, heretofore presented, misrepresents and does great injustice to those of our fellow citizens who once differed from us in political sentiment.

We have not been hunted down, nor do we know of any loyal men in this section of country who have been hunted down and murdered, in the manner and for the reasons set forth in the said petition, nor for any other reason, nor can we believe that it is within the range of possibility for such heinous crimes and crying outrages to occur within the sound of our voices and the limits of our observation, without seeing or hearing some indications of them at least.

We do not know of any organized or general intention or desire to disobey or defy the laws of the United States, or to maintain now that the laws of Virginia are paramount to those of the general government, nor does the history of the last thirty years prove that the people of our city and county are so inhuman, corrupt and blood-thirsty, that they "will commit any and every outrage and crime which seems to be necessary to carry their points."

And your petitioners for the reasons above stated further desire to present to your honorable bodies that the election held in this city on March 5th, 1867, for municipal officers was conducted by respectable, fair-minded and well-meaning men, who had been regularly appointed under and sworn in accordance with the city charter, to receive the votes of none but white male citizens of the State of Virginia, who shall have resided one year in the city and one month in the ward where they offer to vote. That these commissioners desiring to comply in all respects with the laws of the land, and feeling satisfied as to what was their whole duty under the circumstances, held a meeting the day before the election, at which, pursuant to their invitation the colored people's candidate for Mayor was present and participated in the deliberations. That the commissioners advised with, and consulted various lawyers, sent a committee to wait upon the Attorney General at Washington, for his opinion, and after these precautionary measures and much consideration did, because the act of Congress passed March 2nd, 1867, had not been certified to them or officially published and put in process of execution, and because Section 5 of that act seemed to apply exclusively to State, and not to charter elections, making no provisions for the length of time which the voter should reside in the city and ward before voting, and because they did not think that the political measure in question was intended by Congress to reach municipal affairs, decide that they could not consistently with their oath of office receive the colored vote. We believe that this conclusion of the commissioners was honest, and not for the purpose of depriving the colored citizens of any rights to which they may be entitled.

NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.—The following is an extract from the Alexandria Gazette, of March 17th, 1841.

EXTRAORDINARY WEATHER, March 17th, 1841.—This day we have experienced an unpleasant weather, as took place at any time during the last winter. A violent snow storm commenced at day light, and continued with unabated fury until midnight—the wind blowing a gale from the N. E. The thermometer at the Museum ranged from 26 to 29 degrees.

GENERAL LEE'S PORTRAIT.—But few more chances remain unsubserved for Mr. Hector Faehs' life size portrait of General R. E. Lee, now on exhibition at the jewelry store of Mr. W. W. Adam, and which is to be raffled as soon as the subscription list is completed.

HIGH WATERS.—News has been received at Georgetown that the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers, at Harper's Ferry, are so high as to interrupt communication between Maryland and Virginia.

POLICE REPORT—MAYOR'S OFFICE.—Felix Greenapple and Henry Steel, both from Washington, got into a dispute yesterday evening, about the purchase of a calf, which resulted in Steel spitting in Greenapple's face; and Greenapple returning the compliment, Steel struck at him and broke a window. Both were ordered to the Watch House last night, and were discharged.

OFFICERS H. PADGETT, and OGDEN, conducted to the Watch House last night, a young white girl who gives her name as Maggie Malinda Strickler, who is evidently disordered in her mind. She hails from Harper's Ferry, and says her uncle Wm. Strickler, lives near that place, and that she ran away from him and walked here. She is comfortably dressed and is quite good looking, she was placed in Mr. Padgett's care for the present, until her friends can be heard from.

JAMES BURKE was locked up last night, by officers Edelin and Bogue, on complaint of his wife, who charged him with having sold a portion of her bed clothing. This morning he pleaded whiskey as the cause, and begged his Honor to release him as he promised to go a fishing next Monday. He is exempted not to similarly indulge in the future. He was dismissed with an admonition.

MAGISTRATES' OFFICE.—The case of Mrs. John Baurat, who was charged with having in her possession a cow, the property of John Gillen, was dismissed.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—About a quarter to five o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the rear of a two story building, on the Island, known as C. J. Brewer's flour and feed store, and before the conflagration could be stayed, a large shed or stable, some sixty feet in length, was entirely destroyed, together with three horses, a mule, a cow, and a large quantity of feed, corn and hay.

The Radicals are urging upon Congress to amend the charter of the city as to allow a vote for Mayor to be given at the coming election, and it is expected that within a few days a bill providing that the election for Mayor of this city shall take place in June next, instead of a year hence, when Mr. Wallace's term expires, will be introduced in the Senate.

A new steam fire engine for Georgetown, has been brought to that place.—Nat. Int.

BLACK REPUBLICAN MEETING.

[REPORTED FOR THE GAZETTE.]

The regular weekly gathering of the Black "Republican Association" was held at Lyceum Hall last night, but the attendance was so slim and the proceedings, save a little episode, so very uninteresting, that a full report would be "stale, flat and unprofitable."

Prior to the "organization" one of her Britannic Majesty's subjects, just slightly à la rigo, entertained the assembled few in an unvarnished style, with his views and opinions in reference to the Association, and its aims and objects, especially in its bearings upon the colored people, and in language more pointed than elegant, denounced the white leaders for their selfish style. Having concluded his remarks, the "subject" adjourned, and the Association met.

The absence of the "ring-leaders," the great falling off in the attendance, especially of the colored element, while the number of spectators was larger than on any previous occasion, seemed to incense the very few white members, and render them particularly irascible—so much so that it is not recollected that more than one agreeable expression was made use of towards friend or foe during the entire evening.

As usual, the spectators at these weekly "social gatherings" occupied a small space in the Hall, very near the South door, and as the temperature inside, as well as out, was not the most agreeable, some of them unconsciously kept their hats on, and one or two continued to smoke their cigars, (a practice not at all uncommon in public gatherings,) and forthwith, and without a word of warning, immediately upon the meeting being called to order, up popped one of the white members (the whites always make the motions, and the blacks vote invariably aye,) and moved the appointment of a committee to wait on the spectators, order them to take off their hats, put out their cigars, and take seats—for, said the mover, "this is a respectable meeting, and should be respected!"

The Chair very properly remarked that the spectators were gentlemen, and intended no disrespect, and suggested that a gentle reminder was all that was necessary; he therefore declined to entertain the motion, whereupon the spectators, with one accord, doffed their hats, put out their cigars, and although the benches were by no means clean, yet all took seats, and thus was the cause for an unnecessary display of spleen removed.

And now for the only episode, the only incident that occurred to enliven the dull monotony of the evening's entertainment.

Just as soon as the spectators and their hats and cigars were disposed of, (nothing was said about chewing and flooding the floor with tobacco juice,) up jumped another white member, and moved that the name of one of the brethren, who had just ordered, be stricken from the list of members, "for disorderly and disgraceful conduct on the street, and for using abusive language against Mr. J. C. Underwood."

The member thus unceremoniously assaulted rose, and, with indignation stamped in every feature of his face, seconded the resolution, on the ground that he or "any other man who could so disgrace himself as to be a member of this Association deserved not only to have his name stricken from the list, but should be kicked out of the Hall." "When," said the indignant member, "I joined this Association, I supposed I was joining a Union Association, but, sir, I find it a disunion, a disorganizing, and a disturbing Association, which should not only be kicked out of the Hall, but out of the city."

The Chair said that these proceedings were all out of order, and declined to entertain the motion, and the excitement incident to the scene at once subsided, and cause No. 2 for irascibility was obviated.

It was then gravely announced that the funds were short, upon which announcement sundry of the colored element "smelling a rat" yawned, and it was not seen that any funds were paid in. Sandy names for admission as members (among which were many very familiar, but possessed by parties entire strangers,) were handed in and accepted, but upon an intimation that an initiation fee was requisite, it was stated that they would pay when convenient!

The thing was getting unbearably dull, and a motion to adjourn was on the eve of being put when somebody proposed that somebody else should make a speech, and so there were two speeches, one white and one colored, neither of which contained anything rich, rare, or rare, or at all worthy of notice. The usual amount of clap-trap, about "shackles knocked off," "equality," "freedom," "fundamental principles of American institutions," &c., &c., was indulged in, and then the meeting adjourned until the 1st of April, (appropriate time,) or sooner if deemed necessary, upon a call of a committee of three.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. W. A. Harris, A. M., an able and distinguished Minister of the Gospel, will preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church south, in this city, to-morrow morning, at 11 o'clock.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, dusky face, she had a soft, ruddy complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CREAM-SKIN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the outside it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.
